AZAD MADNI RECEIVES THE JOHN LELAND ATWOOD AWARD

From AIAA/ASEE

Tampa, FL, May 17, 2019 — Azad Madni receives the John Leland Atwood Award made by both AIAA and ASEE. It is the highest honor in aerospace engineering education. The Leland Atwood award is bestowed annually upon an outstanding aerospace engineering educator in recognition of the educator's contributions to the profession. This award recognizes the accomplishments of a superior aerospace engineering educator and requires demonstration of improvements of lasting influence to aerospace engineering through research, technical textbooks, or the introduction of experimental courses or experimental instructional methods. The award is given to an aerospace engineering educator who, at the time of selection, is engaged in teaching and research in some field of aerospace engineering. The recipient is honored both at the ASEE Annual Conference and Exposition (at the Aerospace Division Dinner) and at AIAA SciTech Conference (at the Awards Luncheon).
